THE NEWS.—Congress is in session again, and Kansas, Utah and Nicaragua have already made their appearance in one, or the other House.—There will doubtless be a deal of talk on each.—Very little news of general interest reached us by mail, or telegraph, yesterday. The New York Money and Produce markets are improving.

All the Departments of our State Government were formally organized at Madison on Monday. The list of the new State Officers and their assistants will be found in our columns this morning.

The weather, thus far, in January, has been mild and spring like; but there were symptoms, last evening, of a change.

RIOT AT DUBUQUE—ONE MAN KILLED, TWO MORTALLY WOUNDED, AND TWENTY OTHERS INJURED.—A bloody riot occurred at West Dubuque on New Year's night, at a German ball that was in progress at the West Brewery Hall. It seems that a party of drunken men forced their way into the hall at a late hour, and disturbed the ball with their boisterous conduct. It was determined to expel them from the hall, when a terrible fight ensued, in which glasses, chairs and every other moveable thing within reach were employed on both sides.

One man named Gainer was shot dead, and two of his brothers were afterwards fatally wounded. Twenty of the persons were seriously injured during the fracas. One man had his nose severed from his face. A large number of persons have been arrested, and the Coroner's investigation is in progress.

DEATH OF OSCAR F. BLOUNT.—We regret to learn that Mr. OSCAR F. BLOUNT, late Superintendent of the Watertown Division of the La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R., died in this city, on Monday morning last, after an illness of only ten days. His disease was the small pox. Mr. BLOUNT was an active and capable business man, and had made many friends in our city.

Appointment of Private Secretary.

Gov. RANDALL has conferred the appointment of Private Secretary upon Mr. WILLIAM H. WATSON, for several years associated in the editorial management, and part of the time in the proprietorship, of this paper. The appointment is one eminently fit to be made and richly deserved.—Mr. WATSON is singularly well qualified for this post. His talents, integrity, industry, familiarity with public affairs and entire trustworthiness, are credentials which all who know him will recognize, and which none will refuse to receive. He has been a most faithful, earnest and untiring laborer in the political vineyard, and will prove a valuable and reliable aid to our Republican Governor. The appointment meets with general favor, as the following extracts from some of our exchanges abundantly show:

From the Milwaukie News, (dem.)

This act of Gov. Randall is certainly creditable to him. As many of our readers know, Mr. Watson was a long time connected, as part proprietor, as well as editorially, with the "Sentinel," in which relations he won the confidence of his party and the respect of the public. He will prove competent to the creditable discharge of his new duties; and on the score of partisan services rendered, had undoubted claims upon Gov. Randall. We congratulate Mr. Watson upon his honorable position, and wish him abundant success.

From the Madison Argus, (Dem.)

Mr. W. H. Watson, the successor B. F. Hopkins, Esq., as Private Secretary, is as good a choice as could have been made for that position from the ranks of the Republican party. If we are not mistaken, he will fill the office with as much dignity as did his predecessor.

From the Janesville Gazette, (Rep.)

We understand, from a gentleman from Madison that Gov. Randall took his oath of office yesterday, and he is, therefore, now the Governor of the State. We also learn that he has appointed W. H. Watson, Esq., formerly one of the editors of the Milwaukee Sentinel, as his private secretary. It is a good appointment, and will be received with satisfaction by the republican party of the State.

The New Administration.

Governor—A. W. RANDALL, Republican.
Lt. Governor—E. D. CAMPBELL, Democrat.
Secretary of State—D. W. JONES, Democrat.
Treasurer—S. D. HASTINGS, Republican.
Attorney General—GABRIEL BOUCK, Democrat.
Bank Comptroller—J. C. SQUIRES, Democrat.
State Superintendent—LYMAN C. DRAPER, Democrat.
State Prison Commissioner—E. F. MACGRAW, Republican.

Gov. RANDALL has the appointment of a Private Secretary, State Librarian, and Superintendent of Public Property. He has appointed WM. H. WATSON, Esq., recently one of the editors of the Milwaukee Sentinel, as his Secretary. Mr. Watson is admirably fitted for the duties of the position, and we think the appointment will give universal satisfaction among the Republicans of the State. Horace Rublee is continued as State Librarian.

Hon. Rufus Parke of Waukesha, a well known citizen of the State, and prominently mentioned as a suitable man for the office of State Treasurer in the last Republican State Convention,, is the new Superintendent of Public Property.

Gen. J. D. Ruggles is to be the Assistant Secretary of State, under Col. Jones, as we have already mentioned.

We understand that Mr. F. A. Scofield, who was removed from his position as one of the clerks in the Treasury Department, last fall, for supporting the Republican ticket, will be Mr. Hasting's assistant.

Mr. Draper has appointed Mr. S. H. Carpenter, of this city, Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction, and we understand the assistant will have charge more especially of the duties of that office outside the Capitol, such as lecturing and holding Normal Schools in different portions of the State.

Although the members of the new administration are divided in sentiment politically, we believe they are all on good terms, personally, and we now see no reason why they may not act together harmoniously in the performance of their official duties.—State Journal, Jan. 4.

COUNTERFEIT.—The Chicago Tribune thus describes a well executed counterfeit note on the Onondaga County Bank, Syracuse, New York, which is now being circulated in the city of Chicago, and will probably find its way to other parts:

The vignette represents drovers and oxen on the left side is the coat of arms of the State, and underneath is an Indian with bow and arrows.—The bill is dated Oct. 2, 1854.

Look out for them.

Thirty-Fifth Congress—First Session.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.

SENATE.—Mr. Davis of Mississippi introduced a joint resolution to define the authority of the President under the act to amend the act to promote the efficiency of the navy in respect to dropped and retired naval officers, and gave notice that he will call it up.

Mr. Fessenden gave notice of his intention to introduce a French Spoliation Bill.

On motion of Mr. Fitzpatrick, a resolution was adopted requesting the President, as far as may be compatible, to communicate to the Senate the correspondence, instructions and orders of the United States naval forces on the coast of Central America, connected with the arrest of Wm. Walker and his associates at or near the point of San Juan, in Nicaragua, also to transmit such further information as he may possess relative to that event.

Mr. Pugh asked and obtained leave to introduce a bill to provide for the admission of Kansas into the Union. The bill was referred to the Committee on Territories. Mr. Pugh stated that he offered the bill as a compromise, and explained its provisions as follows:—It provides for the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution with the same boundaries as were defined by the bill of the last Congress; it also requires that the Seventh Article of that Constitution relative to slavery shall be submitted to the direct vote of the qualified electors on the 7th of April next, and that the returns of this election shall be made to the Governor of the Territory instead of to the President, of the Convention, and states that the election shall be conducted in obedience to the laws in force on the 7th of November last, also that the Constitution shall not be so constructed as to limit or impair the right of the people to, at any time, call a convention for the purpose of altering, amending or abolishing their form of government, subject to the Constitution of the United States. Mr. Pugh stated that he would avail himself of an early opportunity to explain the provisions of the bill more in detail.

Mr. Benjamin submitted a resolution, which was referred to Committee on Printing, providing for the printing for the use of the Senate of 20,000 copies of the opinions of the Judges of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case.

Mr. Brown commenced a speech in advocacy of the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution. He had not proceeded far when he was seized with vertigo and yielded the floor, expressing the hope that he would be able to proceed with his speech to-morrow.

HOUSE.—Mr. Clingman from the Committee on Oregon Affairs, reported a resolution that the President be requested, if in his opinion compatible with the public interest, to communicate all the information in his possession in relation to the seizure of Wm. Walker and his followers in Nicaragua, together with such instructions as have been given to Naval and other officers.

Mr. Jones of Tenn., said he should like the gentleman to modify his resolution so as to call for information respecting the fitting out of the expedition of Walker in this country.

Mr. Clingman replied that he would modify the resolution if he had power, but being a report from a committee, he could not do so. The resolution was recorded under a suspension of the rules by a vote of 117 against 47. The resolution after debate and amendment, was passed

Mr. Pelsey offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the President to inform the House whether the Government of Nicaragua has made any complaint on account of Commodore Paulding's seizure of Walker and his followers,

Mr. John Cochran introduced a bill to establish the collection districts of the United States, designating the posts of entry and delivery in the same, and for other purposes. Referred to Committee on Commerce.

Mr. Davis, of Mass., submitted a resolution, which was passed, proposing to alter the admeasurement of American vessels.

Mr. Keitt introduced a bill to organize a regiment of mounted volunteers for the Texas frontier.

On motion of Mr. Cobb, a resolution was adopted instructing the Committee on Territories to report an opinion whether or not the organization of Utah ought to be repealed, and that Territory attached to adjoining Territories.

Mr. Quitman asked leave to introduce a bill to repeal certain sections of the neutrality laws.

Mr. Grow objected.

On motion of Mr. Smith, of Illinois, a committee of five were ordered to be appointed to investigate all the facts connected with the late sale of Fort Snelling, with power to send for persons and papers.

Mr. Blair introduced a bill which was referred to the Post Office Committee, authorizing the contraction for carrying the mails from the Mississippi River to San Francisco, under the act of March last, to adopt any route they may choose.

Mr. Greenwood introduced a bill which was referred to the Committee on Claims, to repeal the act establishing the Court of Claims.

Mr. Morrill introduced a bill to punish the practice of polygamy in the Territories of the U. S., and for other purposes. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

All the States and Territories were then called in succession, when a large number of bills and resolutions were introduced and appropriately referred.

Adjourned.

SEVENTH WARD SCHOOL—EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES.—During the past two days candidates for admission into the High School Department about to be organized in the new and elegant School House, just completed in the Seventh Ward, have been undergoing a preliminary examination. There are 108 Scholarships in the High School and for these 145 candidates appeared; rather more than one-third of them, females.—The examination was conducted by a Committee of the Board of School Commissioners, and included Reading, Writing, Spelling, Grammar, Arithmetic and Geography. The Committee will announce on Saturday morning which of the candidates have successfully passed this ordeal. It is expected that all the Departments in the Seventh Ward School will be opened for the reception of pupils on Monday. The edifice is a very handsome one and admirably adapted to School purposes.

PUBLIC BENEFACTORS.—In these muddy times it is pleasant to witness acts of generosity on the part of individuals, when those acts alleviate in any degree the inconvenience of the hard travelling. Yesterday, when the mud was about knee deep, CALEB WALL sent a messenger around among the street-sweepers, presenting each one of the industrious little boys and girls with a new broom. Such acts of kindness, although small in themselves, will be remembered by pedestrians.

THE SIDEWALKS.—The sidewalks of East Water street are in a most disgraceful condition, with no hope of improvement for the present.—They are covered an inch deep with a sticky mud, which should be removed at once. If the proprietors whose stores front these muddy walks will not clean them, the Police should attend to the matter.

POLICE COURT, JAN. 5.—Mathias Gabel and Geo. Whittaker, were fined $1 and costs each, and Frederick Schevergort $5 and costs for being drunk.

Patrick Ryan and James O'Donnell were brought up on a charge of being intoxicated and disorderly, and an examination of their case continued to the 10th inst.

Peter Schoefler, John Schubert and Henry Stein were brought up for committing an assault and battery, but were discharged for want of prosecution.

THE PARDON OF FASSBINDER.—The News local, it now appears, spoke too quick in ascribing the pardon of Fassbinder to bribery. He "comes down," in yesterday's paper, in the following precipitate fashion:

In our notice of the Fassbinder Pardon in yesterday's paper—we are led to suppose from a gentleman who called on us yesterday that we may may have been in error—we understand that there were good causes for the pardon, and that the petition for pardon was signed by some of our most respected citizens!

HANDSOME PRESENT.—We saw yesterday a very handsome blue silk, silver-trimmed, Master's Collar, with jewels, presented by the Brethren of Milwaukee Lodge, No. 3, to their worthy Master, MORRIS LOUIS. The collar and jewelry were manufactured by Van Cott, and do credit to his approved taste and artistic skill.—The present was a fitting tribute to a good Mason and honest man.

THANK YOU.—The Wisconsin Mirror, one of our best exchanges, in noticing the Sentinel, says: "The card of the Milwaukee Sentinel, appears in our columns, this morning. The Sentinel stands at the head of the Wisconsin Press," and advises its friends after they have taken the Mirror to subscribe for the Sentinel. Sensible advice, friend Mirror, and the rapid increase of our circulation, even in these pinching times, clearly indicates that the public are inclined to the same opinion with yourself.

BALL AT SMITH'S HOTEL.—There is, we learn, to be a social ball at Smith's Hotel on Main St., on the evening of the 12th inst. Mr. Smith, whom everybody knows—or used to know—as proprietor of the Milwaukee House, informs us that he intends to make this one of the most agreeable parties given this season, and he hopes that his pains may be rewarded by a liberal turnout on the part of his friends and the public.—We unite with him in this desire, and do not doubt that all who attend will have a right merry time.

BLACKWOOD FOR DECEMBER.—This favorite Magazine, reprinted by Leonard Scott & Co., from the English edition, is up to time. The contents of the December number are: 1. Our Indian Empire; 2. Phrenology in France; 3. "What will he do with it"—part 2; 4. Michael Angelo; 5. Afoot—part 4; 6. Boscobel; 7. Religious of India.

Blackwood is sent to subscribers for $3,00 a year, or, with any one of the four Reviews for $5,00; and with all four for $10,00. The commencement of the year is a good time to subscribe. Address Leonard Scott & Co., No. 79 Fulton street, New York.

WINCHELL TO-NIGHT.—That true son of Momus, WINCHELL, gives another of his amusing entertainments at Young's Hall, this (Wednesday) evening. On Monday, the Hall was filled, and the laughter excessive. To-night he offers a new batch of Comicalities. Go and hear him.

HOUSE WANTED.—See notice of a house wanted for rent, in our advertising columns this morning.

Moulton City Town and Land Company.

A. B. PAUL, one of the proprietors, is now in this city for the purpose of securing machinery for mills, &c. All persons contemplating moving West early in the coming season, are cordially invited to call and examine our plans, maps, &c., at the American House. A good opportunity is also offered to mechanics and tradesmen of all kinds, to secure—"even with limited means"—good homes in one of the richest valleys of the Northwest.

See pamphlet containing sketch, &c., of country adjacent, and plan of the proprietors in building up an important point on the Sioux River, Iowa. We want actual settlers. Call and see us and talk the matter over. dec23odtf

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Prof. Wood, the renowned discoverer of the invaluable Hair Restorative, still continues to labor in behalf of the afflicted.

His medicines are universally admitted by the American press to be far superior to all others, for causing the hair on the head of the aged, that has been shivered for many years, to grow forth with as much vigor and luxuriance as when blessed with the advantage of youth.

There can be no doubt that it is one of the greatest discoveries in the medical world. It restores permanently gray hair to its original color, and makes it assume the beautiful silky texture, which has been ever desirable in all ages of the world.—St. Louis Morning Herald.

Sold by all respectable Druggists.

SOUP HOUSE REPORT.—The following statement of the success of this establishment during the past month, and its present condition may be of some interest to those of the public who have any curiosity to know the result of the experiment thus far, but more, it is hoped to the friends of the poor—those who have contributed so liberally towards its support, and to whom we confidently look for future assistance.

Since December 10, the number of daily recipients has gradually increased from 82 to 181.—Every now applicant who does not bring the name of some clergyman, is questioned as to name, residence, number in family, etc., and afterwards visited by one of the City Missionaries who reports them worthy or otherwise. The really needy and deserving are furnished by these visitors with tickets which will allow them to carry the soup home, to children or sick relatives, and their names are then entered as daily recipients. In this manner 68 families have been recruited.

Rev. Mr. Pendlupe, German City Mission, 28; St. Paul's Church, English City Mission, 20; Rev. Mr. Staples, 11; Rev. Mr. Muthauser, 4; M. W. MacNeill, City Missionary, 5. Total 63.

Some of these families apply daily—others only when all other resources fail, thus proving themselves willing to work, and maintain themselves, when work is to be had, and unwilling to beg, except from extremest necessity. Many of them are foreigners, who having by mischance or accident lost the chests which contained all their wordly goods, have landed in our country just in the beginning of winter, in the hardest of hard times, and, ignorant of our language, and unable to get work, are without the means of procuring shelter, food, or a change of clothing; others are widows, with children dependent upon them for support; some are men, disabled by sickness or accident; and a few are single men, unable to find employment.

The latter have always cheerfully and readily given their services to the soup room, when required, and so far have saved the necessity of hiring a single day's labor. The room is always quiet and orderly—not a case of disturbance or rudeness having yet occurred.

The relief Society has promptly supplied some of the more destressing cases, with bedsteads, bedding, clothing &c., also the ladies of St. Paul's, North and First Presbyterian churches, have generously donated clothing. To these—to the farmers, bakers, hotel-keepers, packing merchants, and to the citizens generally, who have aided by larger or smaller donations of food, fuel and money, the gratitude of those whom their bounty has helped to relieve, would be, could they witness it, a rich reward, and in their name, we return their sincerest thanks. To all others we say—Hope us.

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—The Common Council held a regular meeting, on Monday evening; present, the Mayor and a quorum of Aldermen. A long report was received from the Comptroller, urging the Council to provide means to pay the interest and principal (amounting to $83,000) on bonds falling due on the 1st proximo. He also recommends funding a portion of the floating debt, and taxes for this year. He states the amount of taxes to be levied (for city purposes) at $304,049; and the City Liabilities to be as follows:

The report was referred to the Finance Committee and District Attorney, and, after some unimportant business, the Council adjourned till Thursday evening next, when the whole subject of City Taxes will be discussed.

CHESS CLUB.—The meetings of our Milwaukee Chess Club grow more and more interesting.—The members, by comparison, begin to find out the measure of each others powers, and some closely-contested and hard-fought games, have been the result. The Club meets again this evening, at Parlor "D," Newhall House. The admirers of this noble game, who have not yet joined the Club, are invited to "call in."

CLOSING OUT.—Messrs. ADLER, NEWBOUER & CO., are closing out their extensive stock of Dry Goods at 30 per cent., below cost during the present month. As they are to move into their new store in February, they are anxious to close out and commence anew. They also offer the store they now occupy, No. 19 Spring street, for rent. See their advertisement.

PIGEONS VS. TELEGRAPH.—The Wisconsin received, last evening, by its "exclusive" telegraph arrangement, a brief account of a destructive fire on Clark street, Chicago. A much fuller account of the same fire was received by our "Pigeon Express," Monday evening, and published in yesterday morning's Sentinel.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—JUDGE MILLER PRESIDING.—The U. S. District Court is now in session. The following is a list of the Grand Jury: William J. Whaling, Foreman; George McWilliams, David S. Watson, James Russell, Jr., Joseph Cordes, Henry B. Rogers, Stephen H. Sage, Alfred T. Germond, John Ryan, Robert K. Caswell, Wm. H. Byron, Benjamin L. Gibbs, Charles L. Robinson, Abner Kirby, Alfred Burroughs, Charles H. Wheeler, Joseph C. James, Ira Rowe and Albert DeGroot.

CIRCUIT COURT.—THE "BREACH OF PROMISE" CASE.—The case of Ann Cairns vs. Serster Loomis for a breach of promise of marriage which has been in process of trial before the Circuit Court for the past two days, was concluded yesterday, the jury bringing in a verdict, after being out a short time, of $800 damages for the plaintiff. The court house was quite crowded during the greater part of the trial, there being, as always is the case upon such an occasion, hosts anxious to catch every breath of scandal.

"A JANUARY THAW."—We are in the midst of a January thaw. The atmosphere is moist, the streets muddy, the clouds dark and portending rain, or snow. The wind, yesterday, was northeast, with a rising barometer, indicating "change."

LIGHT GUARD CADETS.—A meeting of the Light Guard Cadets, will be held at the Armory this evening, for the election of commissioned officers to fill vacancies.

EUREKA.—The types, yesterday morning, made us say that Governor RANDALL was "firmly installed," on Monday. We wrote "formally," though he is "firmly" seated, as well.

FOR THE POOR.—Our Musical Society contemplate giving a concert soon for the benefit of the poor in our city. Such an act speaks well for the benevolence of the Society, and will no doubt be remembered to their credit.

The Milwaukee & Mississippi road is paying the coupons on all its bonds to-day. This Company is entitled to much credit for its exertions in putting its finances in order. Its dunting debt is now funded, and its construction account closed. With the restoration of business, it will resume its dividends, and probably as soon as any road in the West.

THE CONCERT LAST NIGHT.—Notwithstanding the unpropitious state of the weather, and almost impassable condition of the streets for pedestrians, there was a large attendance at the concert for the benefit of the poor, given by the Hutchinsons, assisted by Professors Seederman and Marx, at Albany Hall last night.

The entertainment was all that could have been desired, and all who attended must have been fully repaid, besides the satisfaction of assisting in a noble object—relieving the suffering poor.

It is a fact which nobody will deny, that our people, whenever called upon to aid any benevolent object, invariably respond with true Christian liberality. We did not learn the amount realized last night, but we think it must be a handsome sum.

COMMERCIAL.

The thaw of the last two or three days, has broken up the country roads, and receipts of produce, are light.—The market is dull, and buyers and sellers differ in their views. We quote:

RYE—No sale, and nominal at 50@55.

Money Markets show some little improvement. Exchange on New York is selling at ¾@1 per cent., mostly at the latter figure.

Weather mild and unsettled.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.

The weather still remains mild, and no prospects of cold weather. The attendance on Change was fair, but little business was done however. The market is very quiet, and there are but few buyers. The amount of produce on hand is more on Saturday, the 2d inst., as reported at the Board of Trade, is as follows:

Commerce of New York.

| | Exports. | Imports. |
|---|---|---|
| New York State,..... | $138,903,983 | $236,496,435 |
| United States,..... | 324,000,000 | 360,000,141 |

From this we see that New York State has 37 per cent. of the total Exports, and 66 per cent. of the total Imports. And again over 50 per cent. of the aggregate of Exports and Imports of the country.

The Domestic Exports from the port of New York, compared with the total Exports from the United States for the fiscal year, 1857, are as follows:

| | N. Y. City. | U. States. |
|---|---|---|
| Rums and Lard,..... | $ 4,008,568 | $ 8,035,697 |
| Wheat,..... | 5,100,511 | 12,240,857 |
| Indian Corn,..... | 15,000,712 | 26,880,216 |
| Cotton,..... | 2,295,097 | 5,184,666 |
| Tobacco,..... | 10,607,310 | 181,575,519 |
| Bullion,..... | 34,145,563 | 39,269,272 |
| Sundries,..... | 83,440,345 | 91,470,203 |
| | 95,759,077 | 65,006,706 |
| Total,..... | $119,197,801 | $388,906,035 |

From this statement we see that the Port of New York exports 35 per cent. of the total Exports of the country, and that exports of cotton over 50 per cent. of the Exports are from New York.

| | N. Y. City. | U. States. |
|---|---|---|
| Bullion,..... | $ 5,642,955 | $12,451,799 |
| Teas,..... | 5,019,358 | 6,757,950 |
| Coffee,..... | 5,005,756 | 22,585,879 |
| Other articles free,..... | 60,397,907 | 90,731,421 |

| Hides,..... | 24,134,563 | 30,016,090 |
| Molasses,..... | 6,709,740 | 8,259,175 |
| Sugar,..... | 25,035,748 | 42,705,424 |
| Miscellaneous,..... | 59,214,864 | 70,512,426 |
| Total,..... | $ 2,650,807 | $360,390,141 |

From this exhibit it will be seen that over 60 per cent. of the total imports are through New York, and also that most of the manufactured goods are imported through New York City, while on free goods, &c., are more generally distributed.—N. Y. Courier.

Money and Stocks.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.

The feeling in money matters has shade more cheerful, though the stock markets appear to be the only quarter in which the abundant ease in money is sensibly felt. The discount houses are very quiet, as very little first class paper of short date makes its appearance.

The rates of discount are unaltered. The opening rates of sterling exchange for the Persia are 109¼@109¾ for first class bills at 60 days.

Stocks were firm, higher at first board, except Michigan Southern, in consequence of the failure of that road to meet its bonds on Saturday.

Cattle Consumed in New York.

Some idea may be obtained of the meat-eating propensities of New York, from the following table—the receipts embrace all the city live stock markets, including those retailed at Bergen, for the year 1857:

| | Beef. | Milch Cows. | Veal. | Sheep and Lambs. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Total for 52 weeks, | 368,447 | 193,845 | 27,208 | 441,864 |
| Av. weekly rec'ts, | 7,143 | 257 | 527 | 8,512 |

The weekly receipts of beef cattle for the preceding year, 1856, were 5,849, showing an average weekly decline of 405 head, or an aggregate falling off for the year of over 21,000 beef cattle. Estimating these at 700 lbs net for the beef, gives 14,700,000 lbs, which at 10½c per lb—the average price for the year—makes a decline of about $1,500,000 in the city beef bill for 1857, as compared with 1856. The number of weekly arrivals, when compared with those of the preceding year, show that the principal falling off has taken place during the last three months, or since the financial pressure commenced.

Exchange Lower.

We are glad to announce that our leading bankers sold exchange at three ¾ cent premium yesterday. This is a lower rate than it could be purchased for the last three months. The business men of the West and South feel greatly relieved at this announcement. There is room yet for a further reduction of one and a half to two per cent. We hope to be able ere long, to record a fact so important and gratifying.—Chicago Democ. Press, 4th inst.

MILWAUKEE:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN'Y 6,

Popular Sovereignty.

The News charges the Republican Party with a sudden "change of front," because they openly and heartily sympathize with Senator Douglas, in his opposition to the administration and its Lecompton Swindle, and in his efforts to secure for the people of Kansas the right to vote for, or against their State Constitution. To make out this charge, the News cites the following admirable resolution from the Philadelphia Fremont Platform:

"Resolved, That the Constitution confers upon Congress SOVEREIGN POWER over the territories of the United States for their government, and that in the exercise of this power, it is both the right and the IMPERATIVE DUTY of Congress to prohibit in the territories those twin relics of barbarism, polygamy and slavery."

This, says the News, is utterly at variance with the doctrine of "Popular Sovereignty," and therefore the Republicans have no right to sympathize with Senator Douglas, or to assume that he is acting with them.

It is certainly a subject of regret to us that the News should be so much exercised in mind, on this point, and we are somewhat loth to deprive it of the "crumb of comfort" while it seems to have picked up in the above quoted resolution. But that resolution, affirming the exclusive power of Congress over the Territories, derives directly from an instrument for which the News affects great respect; to wit, the Constitution of the U. S. In Article 4, Section III, and paragraph 2, of that Constitution, it is written: "The Congress shall have power to dispose of, and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory, or other property belonging to the United States." That settles the question of "power." It is, by the very nature of the case exclusive and therefore "sovereign," since none but Congress can legislate in any way on these subjects.

The "power" conceded, the question recurs as to the "duty" of Congress to exercise that power in the cases specified. The Republicans do hold that "Slavery, and Polygamy, twin relics of barbarism," ought to be prohibited in the Territories. Had this doctrine prevailed, Civil War would not now be raging both in Kansas and Utah. There would have been no "Slavery" to vex and oppress the one, nor "Polygamy" to disgrace and damn the other. The Territories, during their period of tutelage, are properly subject to Federal control. Congress stands to them in loco parentis and is bound to act accordingly. It is, therefore, no infringement of "popular sovereignty," but a compliance with an imperative command of the Constitution, for Congress to "make all needful rules and regulations" for the government of the Territories; and what more "needful," than to prohibit two such prolific sources of strife, discord, bloodshed, sin and shame, as "Slavery and Polygamy?"

But when, having passed through their probationary term, the Territories are about to become States, and to assume equal and sovereign power, with their sister States, then, beyond dispute, the People ought to enjoy the right of framing their own fundamental law, and shaping out their own institutions. For this exercise o "Popular Sovereignty," the Republicans every-, where contend, and it is because Mr. Douglas upholds that right and Mr. Buchanan denies it, that the Republicans applaud the former, and condemn the latter. And in so doing, they have neither changed front, nor abjured faith; but stand fast by the pillars of the Constitution and upon the broad planks of the Philadelphia Platform.

Cabinet Pettifogging.

The News of yesterday has five and a half close columns filled with the letters of Mr. Buchanan's Cabinet Ministers to the Philadelphia Meeting, held to sustain the Administration in its endorsement of the Lecompton Swindle. Mr. Cass leads off with half a column; Mr. Howell Cobb follows with nearly a column; Mr. Floyd, half a column; Mr. Toucey, ditto; Mr. Attorney General Black, a full column; Mr. Thompson, half a column; and Mr. P. M. General Brown, a column and a half. Singular as it may appear, all these Cabinet officers decidedly approve of the action of the Administration, unhesitatingly pledge themselves to its support, and confidently appeal to the Democracy of the Key Stone State in particular, and of the country in general, to go and do likewise. Of course they all endorse the Lecompton Swindle, and wonder that any Democrat should differ with them on so clear a question of party faith. The letters all run very much in the same vein and take the same general line of argument. They were doubtless carefully compared, at a Cabinet meeting. A single sentence from the letter of Howell Cobb, probably the leading spirit of the Cabinet, contains the key to the whole. It reads as follows:

"The policy of the administration in regard to Kansas is the legitimate result of the principles upon which Mr. Buchanan was elected. In recognizing the legality of the Lecompton Convention, and recommending the admission of Kansas as a State into the Union, in conformity to the action of that Convention, the President has given to the country the assurance of his wise and fixed purpose to carry out in good faith the great principle incorporated into the Kansas bill, of allowing the people of Kansas to decide the question of slavery for themselves and in their own way."

To sustain the Lecompton Swindle is, according to the administration, to carry out in good faith the principles of the Kansas-Nebraska Act. And to this action, the whole Cabinet—and, of course, the administration, with all its power and influence—distinctly pledge themselves.—This being the case, we see no possibility of Compromise, and no hope of peace. The war is to be a "war to the knife." The administration undertakes, by the help of Federal troops, to gag and fetter the Free People of Kansas and force them to accept a Slave Constitution, against the well-known, oft-expressed and emphatic dissent of nine-tenths of the bona fide inhabitants. To this despotic outrage, the administration will be resisted to the death by every man fit to be free, in Kansas, or out of it. The fires of '76 will be lighted anew on the plains of Kansas.—Let the Tories of the present day beware of the fate which overtook their Revolutionary prototypes.

The Ancient Bug-Bear.—The Charleston Mercury is out for disunion, immediate and violent, unless Congress adopts the Calhoun constitution. It says: "There is but one course which will save the south in Congress from defeat—union, and unquestionable, unhesitating decision. The south looks to Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi."

Winter in the Pineries.—The Central Wisconsin, of the 31st December, published at Wausau, Marathon County, says:

The winter is now one-third gone, and thus far has been very mild. The days are warm and pleasant, the nights cool, and the snow not over six inches deep. "Loggers" are complaining of there not being sufficient snow for their business and teamsters complain of hard sleighing. Wages will now go as easy as sleds between here and Stevens Point.

Monument to Dr. Kane.—The Freemasons of New York propose to erect a monument in honor of Dr. Kane—a snow peak of immense height—in the park of the Cooper Institute, to be of white marble, of irregular shape, with four tablets in the base, appropriately inscribed.

The Rochester Murder.

The Rochester Democrat of the 2nd instant, after premising that Ira Stout and his sister, Mrs. Littles, each had a strong motive for getting the husband of the latter "out of the way," thus tells how it was done:

Mrs. Littles went to the ground below Falls Field, a little before 9 o'clock on the evening of Saturday, Dec. 19th, and was soon followed by Ira Stout and Littles—the former armed with an iron weapon, supposed to have been unknown to Littles, and the latter with the piece of a chair, found on the spot. On reaching the ground, a favorable position was sought by Ira, and the blows quickly given, which felled Littles and almost instantly proved fatal. Littles never had the opportunity to resist or defend himself and the blows were repeated until he had almost ceased to struggle. Mrs. Littles may assert, and probably will, that she was not aware that murder was intended; but the conversations with Ira and her lonely visit to the appointed spot, are almost conclusive against her on this point. She did not strike a blow, and beyond doubt was shocked and frightened when the terrible deed was done. The mangled body of her husband, and the consciousness of being guilty of the murder as an accessory, for the moment overcame her, and she passed through a scene which no pen can adequately depict.

Ira immediately dragged the body to the precipice, and not being familiar with the ground, fell down with it, a distance of nearly thirty feet, his shoulder and arm striking so as to break the latter, as has been heretofore described. In this terror he called to Mrs. Littles, and she not fully comprehending the cause or extent of the calamity, started to go to his assistance, and before being aware of danger, she too, went down the precipice, and in the fall broke her wrist, and sustained other slight injuries. The bruises upon Mrs. L's face, &c. were caused by the fall. Her nose bled profusely, and her clothes were probably made bloody from this, rather than by the blood from her murdered husband.

Ira was for some time entirely helpless, having fainted away. He believed himself to be dying, and so told Mrs. Littles. He, however, recovered sufficiently to roll and drag Littles body to the water, assisted, we presume, (though of this we are not positively informed) by Mrs. Littles. The latter got down to the oblique path with great difficulty, and her torn skirts, broken combs, lost rosette, and the burs in her clothes and hair, are accounted for by this fall, and by the subsequent clambering down and along the steep bank, and then up the path to the stone quarry.

We are unable to state just how long, after the murder, before Ira and Mrs. Littles reached home on Monroe street; but it is probable that the lad who testified on the trial told the truth, when he said he found them at home at half-past eleven. It is no more than reasonable to allow an hour from the time of the murder until they again reached the top of the bank, and it may have been an hour and a half. In their faint and disabled condition, it would take them at least half an hour to walk home. At half-past eleven they were still sitting up, and from that time until the surgeon was sent for, plans were revolved for extricating themselves from the terrible condition into which they had plunged themselves.

It will be seen that both Ira Stout and Mrs. Littles had motives for getting rid of the husband of the latter. Weak and insufficient as those motives may appear to others, it is impossible to judge how strong they may have seemed to Ira and his sister. The former stood in daily fear of an exposure which would compel him to leave the place in disgrace, while the degree of infatuation on the part of Mrs. Littles, about getting rid of her husband, and being free to accept the attentions of others, must be a matter of opinion.

In conclusion, we have to say, that we are not mistaken in asserting, as we have done before, that no other persons than Ira Stout and Sarah Littles were concerned in the murder. The main facts and incidents in the case are as we have given them above, and no "confessions" implicating other parties are likely to made, and will not be true if made.

The Adriatic.—Extract of a letter from Capt L. B. Mackinnon, of the royal navy, dated off Liverpool, Thursday, December 3d, 1857, on board the Adriatic:

I am delighted with this magnificent ship; although we have been obliged to make the greatest portion of this passage under half steam, I feel confident that she will eventually cross the Atlantic in twenty hours less than any other vessel afloat. I only mention twenty hours, as I wish to be well within the mark.

The internal arrangements, and economy, are admirable; and I feel satisfied that no person of experience can deny that the Adriatic, as a whole, is the most perfect sea-going steamer in world; the lolean, knife-like manner in which she cuts the water is a perfect marvel. When on an even keel there is no break or wave until the paddles strike the water. Astern, the sea is smoother than in any other place; the converging current cutting off the heads of sea as a scythe cuts grass. I never remembered being in a ship which gave me so much confidence as to strength, stability and power.

The Congressional Delegation from Minnesota—with the exceptions of Messrs. Rice and Becker—numerously escorted by their friends, passed through our city during the early part of the week, on their way to Washington. The gentlemen named remained over for a few days—Senator Rice to attend to the sale of lands belonging to the Fort Crawford Reservation.

At the sale, some dissatisfaction, as we learn, existed, owing to the shortness of the notice given to the settlers, and the fact that while purporting to sell the land for government price, a dollar and a half an acre was charged by those disposing of it.

What the South Thinks of Douglas.—The Charleston Mercury, the ablest of the Southern Fire-eating organs, pronounces the Anti-Lecompton speech of Senator Douglas "the claptrap of a demagogue, looking to his position with an anti-slavery constituency in Illinois, of whom he is afraid."

The Calcium Light on board the Adriatic was so distinctly visible at a distance of 15 miles from Sandy Hook, at an early hour on Monday morning last, as to cause the impression that there was a fire at sea. It illuminated the whole heavens.

How to Cure High Taxes.—The Stevens Point Pinery, groaning in spirit under the heavy load of taxation this year, thus vaticinates:

If some process could be put in operation to hang a few thousands of the political Lazaroni that infest the precincts of this State at every cross-road; honest men might remain in Wisconsin. Otherwise they will have to leave it.

John Thomas in the Cabinet.

What a pity old Mr. Cass couldn't have been elected President! What a sad pity! What an amiable and venerable exemplar he would have made of the free-born American flunkey! An Englishman, named Ferguson, "F. L. S.," has just published his travels, "America by River and Rail," in the course of which he called on the ancient Michigander in his retirement at Detroit, and listened to many and wise utterances from the sage of the Peninsula. Among other things, Mr. Cass said, "the proudest moment of his life was on the occasion of his leaving Paris, when, going to make his congé to Louis Philippe, the monarch stepped forward and shook him heartily by the hand."

Mr. Cass being a representative man of that large class of American citizens whom we denominate Doughfaces, it is a contribution to history to know what was the "proudest moment of his life." Hence we repeat, what a pity this shining character is condemned to the drudgery of the Department of State!—Cincinnati Gazette.

Valuable Humbug.—An exchange relates a story of a lady having read of the "valuable discovery" going the rounds of the papers, that by soaking muslin dresses in a solution of chloride of zinc and drying them, they would not blaze, on contact with a fire, tested the discovery according to direction. The experiment did not succeed, but her efforts did. In a second all there remained of twenty yards of illusion was a small heap of tinder and a loud female scream. The valuable discovery is a valueless humbug.

What does it Mean?—We are informed that the claims have been struck off many of the prisoners in the Penitentiary, and they allowed comparative freedom. Some of those have been in chains for the past two years; and the singularity of this proceeding, at the present time, very naturally leads one to exclaim, What does it mean? If those prisoners were unsafe in past time, why not now? We have heard it intimated that this has been done for the purpose of giving trouble to the incoming officers; but can hardly give this report credence.—Waupun Times.

The Mormon War—Dispatch of Col. Johnston's to the Assistant Adjutant General of the army.

Headquarters Army of Utah,
Black's Fork, on route to Salt Lake City,
November 6, 1857.

Major:—I have the honor to inform you that I arrived here on the 3d inst. This place I designated in a communication to Col. Alexander, subsequent to my letter to you of the 18th of October from the South Pass, as one at which the force (consisting of one squadron of dragoons, two companies of the Tenth Infantry, and one company of volunteers—in all about three hundred men) under the command of Col. C. F. Smith, charged with the duty of protecting the trains of supplies for the army, could with the most facility join the main body. Colonel Smith, with his command and the numerous trains guarded by it, reached here on the 3d inst. The march was slow and tedious, and effected in eight days—averaging eleven miles per day. Although the road was excellent, and the weather fine, it was not possible to make any more rapid progress, on account of the broken-down condition of the draught animals. Trains, including settlers and merchants, destined for Salt Lake, (which I would not allow to go on,) in as close order as they could be made to travel, occupied a space of five or six miles. No molestation whatever was attempted by the Mormons, which may be attributed to the presence of the cavalry and the judicious dispositions and vigilance of Col. Smith.—Yesterday and to-day have been occupied in making arrangements necessary for a forward movement, which my orders will explain. To-morrow I will march upon Fort Bridger, and dislodge any force I may find there, and await the arrival of Col. Cook, when, as the approach of winter is too near to attempt the passage of the Wasatch range of mountains with a probability of success, I will seize upon the district mentioned in my letter from South Pass, and occupy it until an advance is practicable.

The communications from Brigham Young to Col. Alexander, and Elder Taylor to Capt. Marcy, and the orders of D. Wells, the commander of the Mormons, (herewith enclosed,) and the acts of the Legislative Assembly at the last session, show a matured and settled design on the part of the sect of Mormons to hold and occupy this Territory independent of and irrespective of the authority of the United States. They have with premeditation placed themselves in rebellion against the Union, and entertain the insane design of establishing a form of government thoroughly despotic and utterly repugnant to our institutions. Occupying, as they do, an attitude of rebellion and open defiance to the government, connected with numerous overt acts of treason, (see orders and commissions herewith, issued by the leaders,) I have ordered that whenever they are met with in arms they may be treated as enemies.

In my letter from the South Pass I submitted to the consideration of the General-in-Chief the necessity on the part of the Government of prompt and vigorous action; that the time for any further argument is past; and, in my opinion, the people of the United States must now act, or submit to a usurpation of their territory, and ungrafting upon our institutions a social organization and political principles incompatible with our own. Lest that letter may not have been received, I send herewith a copy.

The state of things now existing has not been brought about by the movement of troops in this direction; for these people understand the relation of the military to the civil power of the government as well as any other portion of the inhabitants of the Union, and that the arms of our soldiers are designed for the preservation of the peaceful condition of society, and not for its disturbance. Their conduct, as I have before stated as my opinion, results from a settled determination on their part not to submit to the authority of the United States, or any other outside of their church.

Enclosed is a statement of the Chief Commissary of the amount of subsistence destroyed under the orders of Brigham Young. The loss, although great, is less than I apprehended. A supply early in the spring must be forwarded. It should reach here by the first of June. The supplies of the contractors, settlers, &c., for the employees have been exhausted; so long a detention with the army was not anticipated by them. It has become necessary to give them to understand, as there can be no other source from which they can obtain it. Should a long interval intervene without hearing from me, you need only attribute it to the difficulty of sending expresses across the mountains in the winter months. The officers and men are in fine health, and animated with an ardent desire to discharge their duties faithfully.

With great respect,
Your obedient servant,
A. S. JOHNSTON,
Col. 2d Cavalry, Commanding the army of Utah.

To Major Irvin McDowell, Assistant Adjutant General, Headquarters of the Army.

P. S.—We have made one day's march since the date of this, and are now (Nov. 7) awaiting the arrival of trains, delayed yesterday by a storm. Our trains occupy, in as close order as they can travel, the road for thirteen or fourteen miles. Therefore, the rear cannot move till late in the day. A. S. G.

A Filibuster Minister.

Gen. Mirabeau B. Lamar, of Texas, has been chosen Minister to Central America by Mr. Buchanan. This choice fixes the meaning of the windy denunciations of Filibusterism embodied in the President's Message. If there be one man more intensely Filibuster than any other of our countrymen, Gen. Lamar is that man. Originally a Georgia politician of the Nullifying School; he was early involved in the intrigues which had for their object the theft of Texas from Mexico and its conversion into a Slave State. His efforts to dismember Mexico did not cease with the success of that conspiracy, but have been continued ever since. Lamar is the intimate crony of Soule, T. J. Green, Cazneau and their clan, and have made filibustering their trade for the last dozen years, and stand and grow with Filibuster Walker in all things. He goes to Central America with his absorbing idea—to help Walker by every means in his power. If that adventurer has but a show of success, Lamar will recognize him as President of Nicaragua forthwith; if he is defeated and in peril, Lamar will save his neck if possible. He will be worth to the Filibuster cause a battery of Gen. Scott's best artillery and a regiment of his cavalry.

How can the Presidents imagine that the European powers will give the least weight to his barren denunciations of Filibusterism while he acts so strikingly belie his professions?—N. Y. Tribune.

Grand Haven.—Grand Haven on Lake Michigan, is situated on a fine site at the mouth of the Grand River, directly opposite the beautiful and flourishing city of Milwaukee. It has an excellent harbor formed by the river and bays, extending some fifteen miles, with a depth of water of from thirty to fifty feet sufficient for vessels of the largest size. The entrance to the harbor is six hundred and fifty feet wide. The distance from Grand Haven to Milwaukee is seventy-five miles. A line of transit steamers, fitted up in the most costly manner, with every regard for the safety and comfort of passengers, will ply daily between the two ports, in connection with the regular trains of cars.

Grand Haven is becoming a place of great interest in consequence of being the western terminus of the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway. The construction of this road, which is rapidly going on, and which will be completed to Grand Haven in time for the Spring trade, will make a material difference in the travel from the East to Milwaukee, Minnesota, Iowa and other western regions. This will be the terminus of two great lines of travel—one on the Canada route from Portland, or from New York via the Suspension Bridge, connecting with the Detroit and Milwaukee road, which will reduce the distance of travel from the Suspension Bridge to Milwaukee from 596 to 430 miles, and will aid much in giving Milwaukee a business radius which will then extend from below Savanna, Illinois, on the Mississippi valley, to the extreme Northwest, sweeping in the trade of Northwestern Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and Minnesota.

Who that is Troubled.—With any of those disagreeable complaints, such as Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or Liver diseases of any kind, but would like to know of a remedy for these unseemly visitations? We feel that we are doing our invalid readers an invaluable service if we can induce them to get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and take it, for we know from personal experience that it is one of the greatest remedies for general debility, and consequent inactive bodily powers, ever before used. Its action is so perfect and complete as to give relief the first time taken, and if it does to others as it has to us, half a bottle will be all that is needed. We know of nothing we can recommend with such confidence, as a family medicine, as the Invigorator. (See Advertisement.)

The Cures made by Prof. De Grath, with his "Egonic Oil," are almost miraculous, and as wonderful and instantaneous, so satisfactory, and mitigating of human ill, as to call upon public functionaries, and those having charge of public institutions for the sick and suffering, to look well into this well attested merits, his simple efficacy of this "Egonic Oil."

The sales are rapidly increasing. Dealers supplied at proprietor's prices, by Prof. C. De Grath, No. 3 South Eighth street, near Chestnut.

For sale by Bosworth & Sons, and J. H. Tesch—Milwaukee; Johnstoon & Davis, and Reed & Co., Chicago; and by Druggists and Merchants generally throughout the country. janddawiw,

The Gipsy's Warning.

BY GEORGIANA DEVONPORT.

Do not trust him, gentle lady,
Tho' his voice be low and sweet;
Heed not that he kneels unto thee,
Softly pleading at thy feet;
While thy life is in its morning,
Cloud not this thy sunny lot;
List unto the gipsy's warning,
Gentle lady, trust him not!

Do not turn so coldly from me,
I would only guard thy youth
From a storm and withering sorrow;
I would only tell the truth.
I would shield thee from all danger;
Woe there be in the tempter's snare;
Lady, shun that dark-eyed stranger;
I have warned thee—now beware!

Lady, once there lived a maiden,
Young and pure, and like thee, fair;
Yet oh yet, she wooed and won her,
Who had her gentle heart with care;
Then he heeded not her woes no,
He cared not her life to save;
Soon she perished—now she's sleeping
In the cold and silent grave.

Keep thy gold—I do not need it!
Lady, I have prospect for this;
For the hour when I might foil him,
Rob him of expected bliss,
Ay! I too shall art filled with wonder
At my words so fierce and wild;
Lady, in that green grave yonder,
Lies the village's only child.

Private and Confidential Medical Advice.

AT THE MILWAUKEE Venerian Hospital, established for the cure of Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Weakness, and the infirmities of youth and maturity, by Dr. Barnes.

Dr. BARNES takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Milwaukee and other places, that his office is at No. 12 Wisconsin Street.

READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness, and in many cases, their lives, in the hands of physicians ignorant of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family are subject to.

YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the treatment and study of Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, effects of solitary habits, ulcers upon the body; throat, nose or eyes; pain in the head or bones, and all Mercurial Affections, and all impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer relief to all who may place themselves under his care.

Dr. B. makes no charge for short consultations.—Those requiring much advice should enclose a small fee sufficient to compensate for the time required to write the answer.

CALEB WALL'S ADV'TS

City Auction Room.

I GIVE NOTICE through our papers last week, that I had a large stock of Dry Goods from N. York, from Sixth Avenue, No. 320, corner of Twenty-first st. The goods are all from New York, and no other place; and as rewards had a great many there and many came, so much the better. They are plain, substantial goods, which we all want every day in our families. The goods are now all opened in the store on the west side of the river, formerly occupied by J. L. Pierce, where they will remain for thirty or sixty days. It is no intention of mine whatever to open a retail store, although I have as much right to do as a please, as any one else has to do as he pleases. I have heard that several of my commendants complain that I am injuring the trade by selling goods so low, I would kindly say to those merchants that the goods are all paid for, and if they will come and purchase them of me at a reduced price, I will give them credit, provided they can give me good paper, endorsed six and twelve months; or I will sell the entire stock out, which amounts to twenty thousand dollars, on the following terms: One-fourth cash in three months—balance in one, two or three years, with seven per cent interest, secured by a mortgage on property in our city. But I shall continue to retail the goods until they are all sold, and I would say to all of our old friends to go and get great bargains. There is every kind of goods you want and cheaper yet than ever sold in this city before. Mr. Ayer has the entire charge of the said goods. I attend to all auction business in the old corner, and will give it that strict attention I always have done. And as I have a long stock of goods to sell, I am ready at all times to purchase the same. Call on me.
dec8 CALEB WALL, City Auctioneer.

City Auction Room.

I WANT to purchase twenty thousand to thirty thousand dollars worth of Dry Goods, in the following way: One quarter cash, balance in good city property or I will pay for it with Real Estate Agency, Bank and Stock, exchange Good Bonds and Mortgages, Railroad Stocks, or School Lands. Any one who is tired of trade, and wishes to give up and retire to private life, call on me and I will buy you out. My object is to do good business, and keep myself at the same time. Or, if any one wants to sell his stock of Goods at auction, I will advance him from one-fourth to one-third it's worth on said Goods. I will advance on all kinds of Goods, Groceries, &c., &c., but said Goods will be sold in ten days after the advance, or the parties can, if they wish, redeem by paying the Commission. All I want is to make money out of money, and keep the balance a rolling. Don't think it strange, but mind that I am ready to do all auction business entrusted to my care. Oh, I would also say that the great stock of Goods which has been selling on the west side of the river, at half prices, that I have purchased to keep the store open for thirty days longer. The crowd is so great and Goods so cheap that I think it my duty to give all a chance to get great bargains. Recollect it is in the store room formerly occupied by J. L. Pierce, on the west side of the river. 1 dec22 CALEB WALL.

City Auction Room.

ANOTHER STOCK OF GOODS arrived, all from New York. I have now, I think, the largest and most complete assortment of Dry Goods, ever at the corner store, where J. L. Pierce formerly kept, on the west side of the River. The said Goods are going off 90 per cent less than cost. Great crowds every day.—Twenty two thousand dollars worth of Goods, everything you can think of. Ten clerks ready to wait on every person a chance. CALEB WALL.

City Auction Room.

I HAVE, left in my care, a superior Family Horse, which can be recommended, and will be sold at a great bargain to some one. The owner of said horse is going to leave the city for several months. The reason said horse is sold. It will be sold on six months time if desired. dec19 CALEB WALL.

MR. AND MRS. L. S. R. DE CRETY, from PARIS, for four years past instructors in foreign languages in Milwaukee, have the honor to inform the public that they will form classes in the French, Italian and Spanish languages on the 1st of September next. The course of instruction will be according to the age and intelligence of the pupils, and the classes kept entirely separate, their house being arranged with that view.
Private lessons, and ladies and children without classes, can receive lessons in Reading and Conversation, Mr. DE CRETY furnishing books of the best French authors. Those too wishing to learn vocal music in either of the languages above, will find a competent music teacher in the establishment.
The hours of instruction will be from 8 to 11 o'clock A. M., and from 2 to 5 P. M. And in the evening from half past 7 to 9, for conversation.
Mr. DE CRETY will also give lessons in French, Spanish and Italian, at his office, to gentlemen only, from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evenings, as also to ladies in Painting, the use of the lay, and all military exercises. Persons of delicate constitution and feeble temperament, as also those confined to their offices and engaged in sedentary pursuits, will derive from these exercises, improvement in their health and strength in their limbs and find an agreeable recreation.
Mr. De Crety will also form similar classes for children, from 10 to 16 years old, at his house, or office, as parents may prefer. Any other modern language who desire to see their children strong, active and robust, can judge for themselves, after a few weeks trial, as to the effect of these different exercises upon their health.
The continued patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.
